By Paul Rardin

Tuesday is election day. I will appreciate your vote and support in my race for County Commissioner.

City Election Is Slated Tuesday; Races Spirited

John Dunaly was the last man to qualify as a candidate for office in the Pahokee city election. Tuesday, May 2. Mr. Dunaly, who qualified on Saturday, the final day, is running for mayor, which office he held for several terms in former years. O. B. McClure, incumbent, is seeking re-election.

At the conclusion of the contest, Mr. O'Neal congratulated the band for the excellent training it has received under the direction of Director Robert O. Lampi and said that the group's playing of untrained music under untrained direction was most praiseworthy.

The contest started with the playing of three rehearsed contest numbers, King Cotton March by Simon, Merritt, Maiden Overture by Frank J. Brinkley, and a march by Yoder: "Two right reading numbers, a march and an overture, were then played. This was followed by two special numbers, a cornet trio and a piano duet, Lester Hatton and Donald Stanley, and a clarinet duet, Margaret Anderson and Flora Mary Weeks.

At the conclusion of the contest, the band played several numbers with Maj. O'Neal waving the baton.

Members of the band participating in the contest included clarinetists, Mrs. Edna L. Johnson, Mrs. Mary Weeks, Fay Gilbert, Eddie Hodges, Patay Ann Jensen, Milton Carpenter, Ruth Wroten, Verla Jeffers, Frank Tillis and Betty Jo.

Other contestants included, Lester Hatton, Murray West, Frank Rozelle, Jr., Roger Stantry, Gene Herring, Helen Henry and Clara McLarty, saxophones.

Waltta Nella Hull, Betty Jo, Bertie, Thomas Dickson and Peggy Moberg; trombones—Sam Lovell, Milton Salvatore, Ray Hawk and Eddie Hodges; drums—Joe Padgett; harpoons—Charles Pickett, Sonhouse; snare drums—Donald Padgett; bass drum—Jacqueline Henry; snare drum—Lyra Walker; and bells—Betty Lou Pickett.

Three councilmen are to be elected in this election. In group one, J. V. Thomas, incumbent, is unopposed. In group two, L. Shirley, incumbent, is likewise seeking re-election without opposition. In group two, W. A. Keen, seeking re-election, is opposed by A. J. Gandy, proprietor of Gandy's variety store.

W. P. Walker has no opposition in his candidacy for re-election as city clerk, a job which he has held effectively for many years.

The polls will open at the hall from 8 a. m. until sunset. Serving on the election board will be E. B. Elliott, Ora W. Powell and C. C. Carpenter with Mr. Max Maxwell and Frank Friend, alternates.

Mrs. Wilson To Be Installed PTA Head

At the regular meeting of the American Legion auxiliary held on Wednesday afternoon at 3:15 o'clock, Canal Point 4-H Girls Club and the Canal Point Boy Scout Cub Pack 24, both of which are being sponsored this year by PTA, will present numbers on the program. Mrs. W. P. Jernigan, retiring president, will preside at the business.

BUILDING DESTROYED

A two-room building at the rear of the G. B. Ramsey residence on Bacon Point Road was destroyed by fire around 5:30 p. m. Tuesday. The fire was started by an exploding nail stored in a barrel on the part of Chief Fireman Lewis and his volunteer firemen prevented from spreading to the auxiliary which had held office of the auxiliary since the fall.

TAKE IT FROM THERE

"You'd better get out a little before you board the train," the fisherman warned a drunk who ambled up to the window.

The souse drew himself up with dignity. "Misshen lister," he said, "I've only had ten martonies and I'm not as much under the affluence of inkahot as some thinkle may peep, and the drunker I stand here the longer I get."—Wisconsin Telephone News.

THERE'S A LIMIT

The minister in the Highland hamlet had no more ardent admirer than old Jean. As he thundered forth denunciations of the sins of the world, lying, drunkenness, heresies were heartily.

One day he turned his attention to the scoundrels among the elder women of pipe smoking. "I can't do with preachers when they stop preaching and start meddlin'," she said.—Montreal Star.

A SCOT DEFINED*

Sir Harry Lauder said at one of the innumerable banquets given him by the Caledonians of America: "I am a Scot. The other day I met a man who asked me what a Scot was and I up and says: 'A Scot, my dear boy, is a man who keeps the Sabbath and everything else he can lay his hands on!'"—Collier County News.

RESCUE AT SEA

There's at least one man who owes a great debt to the British postal censorship. He is a British naval officer and his identity is buried in the secret archives of this war.

From a port in the Southeast Pacific one day he wrote two sentimental letters home, the first to his wife, and in the tradition of sailors, the second to another lady. He put them in the same envelope.

When the mail arrived in England a postal censor saw the blunder and put it right. This episode belongs to the immortal chronicle of rescue-at-sea.—New York "PM."

"VOTE"

Tuesday, May 2, 1944

An open letter to our friends and all Florida Citizens:

During these turbulent times, we should all exercise our franchise by voting. We should well consider the type of and the qualifications of all candidates for all offices that we vote for.

The progress the State of California has made in perfecting marketing methods for what they produce stands out clearly demonstrating the outstanding progress that unity of thought and action produces.

We Florida voters have a real chance to bring about an all Florida unification, such as we have never before had, by voting for and electing Captain Ernest R. Graham—all Florida candidate for Governor.

We have known Captain Graham intimately for almost 25 years and, have found him to be honest, capable, successful, sincere, loyal, courageous, and energetic.

He is well qualified by experience (having served 8 years as your Senator from this District) to direct and guide Florida through the troublesome period ahead. He is a World War I Veteran.

His two grown sons and only son-in-law are today serving in the American Armed Forces.

His wide political and business experience has given him a training that will enable him, as Governor to meet efficiently and courageously the problems confronting all Floridians during the turbulent times ahead.

He has done more to raise funds for Florida's elderly citizens than all other candidates combined.

We do not feel like we have the right to directly ask our many friends and acquaintances to vote for Captain Graham.

We do, however, feel like it is reasonable and proper for us to ask you as voters and good citizens of Florida to consider well before you decide not to vote for Graham.

Ask yourselves why you shouldn't support one of our most esteemed and best qualified local citizens in this coming election—truly a farmer's friend.

By voting for Graham, you will be doing more to wipe out sectionalism and to promote state unity than you have ever had a chance to do before.

Respectfully yours,

HARRY H. HECTOR.
Pres., Hector Supply Co.

Cinematic Chatter—

Mrs. W. S. Brandon has returned from Osceola where she was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Pasteur for the past week.

This picture was "Tender Comrade," which is to be shown at the Prince Theatre this Sunday, Monday, and which stars Ginger Rogers, Robert Ryan, Ruth Hussey and Lester Matthews. Patricia Collinge, Marilyn, Charles King, Jane Darwell and Richard Martin. Any person who can sit through this picture, without chuckling, snorting, laughing or times swallowing in amazement, has seen it twice, yes, even shoulding a few pants. Years ago I did—had ice water running through their veins.

To my nation this is one of the greatest war pictures I have seen in this piece. She's a real reel motion, fresh rough comedy to tears, loves and up to a crescendo if pent up emotion that leaves one tired at the end.

Robert Ryan is delightfully real as the husband and "Tender Comrade" to Ginger in this piece. Ruth Hussey takes care of a tough character, but only a "toughie" could be as good as she is. And to King, I think, I am Kinnish. I've seen him in some little bundles I've seen in some time.

Wally Brown and Alan Carney are coming to town this Tuesday-Wednesday, another of their swell shows under the title "Roadside in Burma."

Of course it's a war story and the action is at the front. The boy gets into trouble, gets captured in the end, and it was almost the end for them, they manage to capture some very valuable prisoners, war papers and prisoner here.

Donald O'Connor, star of "Mister Big," Samia Fester, sensation of Phantom of the Opera and Harry Connick, who has a hit in "Top Man," which comes to the Prince Theatre Wednesday, Thursday, with Anne Gwynne, Noah Berry, William Gish, Richard Dix, Donald Meekins, Raoul, Brooks Atkinson and Count Basie and his Orchestra.

It's one of the smartest of the season. It merges a heart-warming story with warlike hilarity, spiced with some songs, and tells it with three of the hottest names in show business. Those though, though, are members of the "Sons of the American Legion," which meet at the Prince on Saturday they are offering a action jammed Western picture under the title "Sons of the Pioneers." We'll be all star Western cast this can't be hot enough for all of us.

Well, folks, the good news came right after lunch Wednesday of last week, when the letter came from the White House. I said it was from New York my wife said, "Here it is."

I began to read the good news. She started to cry. Some tears got in her eyes and she went blind. So we waited awhile while I swallowed an obstruction in my throat that felt like a baseball.

I had been elected one of the HONOURED HUNDRED. I am to go to Washington May 9th.

It was my many good friends who contributed to my winning this honor. I will get to Washington in time to get higher prices for beans, less taxes for my friends and shorter school days for the kids—I hope.

We'll follow the thing I did was thank God—He wins all my battles. Then I thanked my wife—and now I thank you.

See you at the movies—Mal.

Howard Jones Is Pleased With Race

In his last week of campaign for the office of supervisor of instruction, Howard Jones said that he could not have asked for kinder reception by the general public.

Having been "given the necessary time in which to seek the office by the City of Lake Worth where he is a plumbing inspector," Howard attended studies at both the old schoolhouse at Dixie and Clematis and then at the Palm Beach high school. Since his school days he has been connected with the plumbing industry. He married Mrs. Wilma Norman Lake Worth, and they now live in their home at 420 North R Street.

"From the courteous manner in which I was received," he said, "I am assured that my announced position in courtesy in office is in expectation of the people doing business there."

"As supervisor, it will be my aim to inform myself of the latest efficient methods installed in the most progressive registration of free of the state, and so far as may be needed, incorporate them in this office."

Mr. Jones has been a resident of Palm Beach County for 42 years. He was born in West Palm Beach, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul C. Jones. His father was a building contractor, and Howard attended studies at both the old schoolhouse at Dixie and Clematis and then at the Palm Beach high school. Since his school days he has been connected with the plumbing industry. He married Mrs. Wilma Norman Lake Worth, and they now live in their home at 420 North R Street.

Holland To Open Overseas Highway

HOMESTEAD, April 26.—(FNS)—Governor Spessard L.

Holland will preside at the ribbon-cutting ceremonies which will dedicate the beautiful new Overseas Highway from Florida City to Key West, May 16th.

O. G. Lindsey, Miami member of the State Democratic Central Committee, announced that ceremonies will be held at both ends of the road, to be followed by a luncheon and plant calling for ceremonies at Key West, presided over by Governor Holland at 10:30 A. M., and at Florida City at 1:30 P. M.

Eight years of hard construction work and more than $7,000,000 in public funds have gone into the Overseas Highway. The new road started a year and a half ago, will save 17 miles between Florida City and Key West.

State Group Will Meet May 16, 17, 18

WINTER HAVEN, April 27.—(FNS)—The Executive Committee of the Florida State Horticultural Society is announcing the annual meeting of the Society will be held on May 16th, 17th and 18th. Meeting place and time will be the 12th annual meeting of the Kroton Memorial Institute, a program which will be devoted to a discussion of sub-tropical fruits, exhibition of citrus, and the 6th annual session of the Vegetable Section which considers the production and marketing problems of the vegetable growers.

Among speakers of note who have been invited to address the society are Harold Moury, Director of the Florida Agricultural Experiment Station, who will give the opening address on Tuesday night, May 16th; Governor Spessard L. Holland, who will address the combined meeting of all groups on Wednesday night, May 17th; Dr. H. S. Wolfe of Gainesville, vice president and chairman of the meetings of the Kroton Memorial Institute; and Dr. W. S. Thomas of Gainesville, vice president and chairman of all programs of the Vegetable Section.

R. M. O'Byrne of Lake Wales, president of the society, will preside at all meetings of the society.

Dr. H. S. Wolfe of Gainesville is vice president and chairman of the meetings of the Kroton Memorial Institute; and Dr. W. S. Thomas of Gainesville, vice president and chairman of all programs of the Vegetable Section.

A. R. (RAY) ROEBUCK

CANDIDATE

FOR CLERK OF THE CIRCUIT COURT

35 Years a Resident and 30 Years a Taxpayer of Palm Beach County

QUALIFIED BY TRAINING AND EXPERIENCE

As a candidate for this office I consider it my duty to submit to the voters and taxpayers some facts relative to the office, which should be brought to the attention of the public since we are dealing with the people's office and the people's money.

Clerk by his election in 1939 became that Trustee in 1941, when he took office, and therefore is such Trustee by virtue of his office. The Clerks of the Everglades Drainage District have been appointed Agent for it to carry out the provisions of the Drainage District Law.

The fees earned by the Clerk of the Circuit Court as Agent or Trustee are paid by him and the employees in a public office, by use of County equipment, during regular hours or on OVERTIME PAID FOR WITH PUBLIC MONEY and certainly such fees are earned in work incidental to his office.

Vote for Eugene M. Baynes

JUDGE OF THE CRIMINAL COURT OF RECORD, OF PALM BEACH COUNTY, FLORIDA

Absolutely reliable and trustworthy and of unquestionable integrity and ability.

For nearly thirty-five years he has had experience in the practice of both criminal and civil cases in our courts.

QUALIFIED—EXPERIENCED

(Pol. Adv. Paid For By Friends)

In this office the Clerk receives his compensation and the employees are paid fees charged for services rendered by him, and the law requires the Clerk to REPORT AND PAY OVER TO THE COUNTY ALL FEES IN EXCESS OF HIS SALARY OF $7,500 and the EXPENSES OF THE OFFICE.

In 1940 when the present Clerk was NOT in office, the Trustees of the Internal Improvement Board appointed Attorney Clerk of the Circuit Court in Florida its Agent and Trustee in their respective capacities as far as it carrying out the provisions of the Murphy Act. The present

THE PRESENT CLERK FOR THE YEARS 1941, 1942, AND 1943, TO WHICH HE WAS ENTITLED, RECEIVED FEES AS AGENT FOR THE EVERGLADES DRAINAGE DISTRICT AND IN ADDITION THERETO, RECEIVED FEES AS AGENT FOR THE EVERGLADES DRAINAGE DISTRICT (TO WHICH HE WAS NOT ENTITLED).

THIS IS NEARLY $10,000.00 PER MONTH FOR 36 MONTHS.

The Item of $15,446.63 (Trustee and Attorney Fees, to which the Clerk was not entitled) was not REPORTED as the LAW REQUIRES since it is considered by the Clerk in his PRIVATE BUSINESS.

In my opinion the Clerk of the Circuit Court of Palm Beach County CANNOT LEGALLY set up and maintain in a public office any kind of PRIVATE BUSINESS and that the law requires him to report all income and earnings of the office from whatever source, it may be received.

I will rectify the record by fixing the salary of the Clerk of the Circuit Court at not more than $7,500 per year.

AND WILL INCLUDE ALL EARNINGS AS AGENT FOR THE TRUSTEES OF THE L. I. BOARD AND THE EVERGLADES DRAINAGE DISTRICT, regardless of what any Attorney General might have advised, BECAUSE I HOLD THAT THE LAW IS:

(Quotations of the law) A public office is a public trust, and "Time of salaried officers, consumed in work incidental to official duties, during office hours, belonging to employer, and all fees therefore borne to employees benefit, unless there is Statutory direction to the contrary. There is no statutory direction to the contrary in Florida."

The law is well settled in this country that while one's right to office is a substantive right that may be enforced in appropriate proceedings, yet a public officer has no estate in his office, and under no circumstances does anything he receives from the office become his property or commissions accruing to him therefrom are not his property, and that

He who is acting as Clerk of the Circuit Court of this State that he could possibly receive from the fees of his office a salary of more than $7,500 per annum has made a thorough study of the law. There being no line of decisions holding contrary to the above.

BE ELECTED I WILL SERVE YOU HONESTLY AND TO THE VERY BEST OF MY ABILITY.

Millard Caldwell Finishing Strong' On The First Lap

TALLAHASSEE, April 27.—Millard Caldwell is "finishing strong" two weeks into the campaign for Governor. He has been working days of the first lap. He is generally regarded as assured of being in the second primary and in his own words he is "just getting warmed up" in his campaign.

Caldwell has spent 25 working days on tour in his first primary campaign. He has delivered 246 public talks or speeches of a political nature and addressed 12 county organizations on civic clubs on subjects other than politics, never referring to his candidacy in any of these, and has made 16 radio broadcasts, many of them on statewide radio stations.

Totaling the communities visited in the interest of his candidacy, whether to speak or confer with supporters or others, Caldwell has visited 291 places since he started on tour in February.

He has taken out no rest period except Sundays but he still finds time to visit his headquarters if he isn't scheduled for more than five speeches in a day.

When Caldwell started his tour he was known to only a few people in each community outside his own congressional district and made one trip over that district and left his campaign there to his friends. His first reappearance in Tallahassee was one week ago when he attended the biennially prepared by the State Convention Caldwell-for-Governor club and made his first campaign speech in Tallahassee. Then he went over the state district by district and accounted how well the rest of the state had treated him on his tour. Pensacola held a big rally for him in the historic Plaza lab Saturday night to celebrate his success.

Monday night, from 10:45 to 11:00 o'clock, Caldwell will speak over the radio from Tampa on a statewide Mutual network.

WINTER HAVEN, April 27.—Chairman of the Winter Haven Chapter of the Polk County Farm Bureau Federation this week is engaged in an ambitious program — to sign up at least half, if not more of the proposed 1,500 members set as a goal for this area. The Polk County bureau is the largest in the state in both actual and potential membership.

The various activities of the Farm Bureau are designed to give the producer a direct manner whether he grows citrus or strawberries, potatoes or beans, cabbage or poultry and beef, a voice not only in agriculture as a whole but in the particular growing field in which he is vitally interested.

Stuckey Receives
Strong Support
In Congress Bid

WEST PALM BEACH, April 27.—Spending most of this week in the East Coast sections of the District, L. E. Stuckey, Candidate for Congressman, has been welcomed as a guest friend in his headquarters here. The candidate expressed himself as especially pleased over the support being accorded his campaign by the Press of the District and by the supporters being received, voluntarily pledging support and complimenting him on the clear-cut stand he is taking on various issues of the campaign.

Last week the Farmer-Business man candidate received statewide recognition from Monte Grav, Secretary of the Florida Vegetable Committee at Orlando, for the work of the Florida Vegetable Committee since its organization last June. Mr. Grav gave every endorsement for the formation of the independent vegetable group that has meant so much to vegetable growers, shippers and overall business, conditions in the vegetable industry, not only did Stuckey provide the leadership in setting up the new group," said Grav, "but he also contributed liberally of his own funds to get it off to a good start."

Candidate Stuckey is proud of the part he has had in waging a continuing successful fight against the bureaus for the farming and agricultural interests in the State and South Florida, in particular.

"When I go to Congress," he stated here this week, "I'll bend every effort toward giving alert, upright, aggressive representation to all interests in the Sixth District."

Candidate Stuckey has engagements that will take him to every County in the District during the remaining days of the first primary.

Won't forget this mug soon, will you?

He was top man once—in some quarters. Today he's headed for the ash can.

It was a mean, bitter job, heading him off. It still is. And though he doesn't look it now, there was a time when he seemed to have the world in his pocket.

What did finally stop him? First of all, fighting men. Then, day after day, he saw the same production—something he couldn't begin to match! Production of ships and planes and food and munitions and what it takes—in unbelievable quantities!
